Rest in peace Prof. Dr Mohamad Tybee Al-Layla.

Iraq - Mosul

Iraq, 15.01.2017, 22:00 Time

USPA NEWS - As you might have heard, the American Coalition have been bombing civilian areas in Mosul. Over the past few days the coalition targetted 3 houses of well known professors and researchers in Mosul University.

One of them was my college professor and mentor Prof. Dr Mohamad Tybee Al-Layla.

Dr Al-Layla got his PhD in Geotechnical Engineering from the University of Texas, USA. Worked as a faculty member in the Department of Civil Engineering in the Engineering College of University of Mosul since the early seventies of the last century. He was assigned as a Chairman of the Civil Engineering Department and the dean of the college twice. Supervised more than 30 PhD and Master degree thesis in Geotechnical Engineering and Civil Engineering. He published 48 research and technical papers in Iraq and abroad, and became an editing member of 3 scientific journals and magazines.

He recieved the prestigious award of the Iraqi Science Day on June 2nd, 2014.

He worked sincerely and hard for about 40 years to educate and help thousands of highly efficient and intelligent engineers graduate, many of whom became Ministers, deputy ministers, academics and high ranking executive directors in Geotechnical, Irrigation Engineering, and other civil and political posts inside Iraq and abroad.

Being one his students, it breaks our hearts that even though Dr Al-Layla was such a great scientific Iraqi figure who never let down or disappointed the University of Mosul community or even the city of Mosul in its hardest times, the crime of targetting his house by the American Coalition and his painful death along with his innocent family under the rubbles of his house, will remain an unforgettable disaster to us, one that all parties hold the responsibility of, that reminds all of us that we are still sinking to the abyss the criminal US occupation of Iraq has led to.

May his soul rest in piece, and the souls of the many innocent thousands dying every month in Mosul by ISIS and the coalition without accountability nor remorse.
