STEPHANE SEJOURNE PRES. OF RENEW EUROPE WELCOMES EUROPEAN LEADERS INCLUDING PRES. MACRON A YEAR AHEAD OF THE NEXT EUROPEAN ELECTIONS (6/9 JUNE 2024)

At the invitation of the Renew Europe's President Stephane Sejourne (french Former Advisor of President Emmanuel Macron), Renew Europe Leaders met at the Palais des Académies in Brussels on Thursday 29 June 2023, ahead of the European Council meeting of the same day and the following day. This Summit will bring together the liberal and democrat leaders of the Renew Europe family. It is also the period of preparation for the Renew Europe Group, to the future campaign, ahead of the next European Elections are expected within (6-9 June 2024). French President Emmanuel Macron, alongside other Chief of governments, PM of Luxembourg, Xavier Bettel, PM of Belgium Alexander de Croo, PM of Estonia Kaja Kallas, PM of Slovenia Robert Golob, PM of The Netherlands Mark Rutte, PM of Bulgaria Nikolai Denkov and President of the European Council, Charles Michel welcomed by Stéphane Sejourne President of Renew Europe, ALDE Party Co-Presidents, Ilhan Kyuchyuk, Timmy Dooley and EDP President, François Bayrou and more than 30 National Party Leaders of the Renew Europe family.

"It has been a year since our last edition of the Renew Europe Leaders' Summit. The Russian War of Aggression against Ukraine continues, while rising inflation affects our everyday lives. Similarly, the challenges of climate change have not disappeared and we continue to witness the growing influence of illiberal governments not only across the EU, but also globally. With less than one year before the citizens go to the polls to cast their votes in the European Elections, they need us to deliver on our promises." Declared Stéphane Sejourne, President of Renew Europe Group

Stephane Sejourne, emphasises « Renew Europe is strong with key Members of the European Council, instrumental European Commissioners, participation in several governments across the EU and a decisive political group in the European Parliament." Stephen Sojourn continue With this in mind, our Leaders' Summit will set the scene for defining our collective response to current and future challenges in Europe, taking pride in our successes to date." Stated Stéphane Sejourne, President of the Renew Europe Group in the European Parliament.
